When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

AGRICULTURAL STATISTICS.

In the Prime Minister's report there are two inaccuracies which we noted yesterday, putting remarks in parenthesis, to prevent our readers abroad from being led astray. His Excellency says:—

"Our wheat-crop last season was worth 300 miliions currency (£17,000,000 sterling) and the Santa Fe colonies have 7,300,000 acres under cultivation."

The following table shews the estimated crops of 1891-2—

	Tons	Value $ gold
Wheat.....	825,000	25,500,000
Maize.....	930,000	13,500,000
Barley.....	160,000	3,200,000
Linseed.....	40,000	1,200,000
Sugar.....	60,000	3,000,000
Tobacco....	6,000	600,000
Alfa.....	3,000,000	23,000,000
Wine.....	—	4,500,000
Sundries...	—	11,800,000
		86,300,000

This is equivalent to 283 millions currency for all the crops, or 84 millions for wheat alone, instead of 300 millions, as the Minister says.

The Message of the Governor of Santa Fe at opening of the Chambers contains very important agricultural figures, such as the following:—

	Acres tilled	Yearly increase
1863...	21,000	—
1872...	156,000	15,000
1882...	580,000	42,400
1892...	2,122,000	154,200

In 1891 there were 17 new colonies started, covering an area of cultivation of 390,000 acres. The crops of 1891 and 1892 were:—

	1891 tons	1892 tons	Value in '92 $ currency
Wheat.....	501,000	496,000	44,600,000
Maize.....	18,000	47,000	2,500,000
Linseed.....	15,000	36,000	4,000,000
Potatoes.....	31,000	45,000	2,300,000
Alfa.....	138,000	422,000	11,800,000
Mani.....	16,000	10,000	1,200,000
Sugar-cane....	331,000	382,000	2,600,000
Sundries.....	—	—	6,200,000
Total.....	1,050,000	1,438,000	75,000,000

This shews an increase of 37 per cent in weight of products over 1891. The total value of crops was:—

	$ currency	£ sterling
1890.....	29,900,000	= 2,500,000
1891.....	64,400,000	= 3,500,000
1892.....	75,000,000	= 4,700,000

The crops of the Republic are estimated at £17,100,000, from which it appears that Santa Fe stands for more than one-fourth.

As regards the Santa Fe colonies we have the official returns of area under tillage in 1890 for the whole republic thus:—

	Acres
Buenos Ayres.....	3,420,000
Santa Fe.....	1,470,000
Entre Rios.....	608,000
Cordoba.....	590,000
Santiago.....	300,000
Mendoza.....	324,000
San Juan.....	200,000
Other provinces.....	615,000
Total.....	7,427,000

Since 1890 the area in Santa Fe has risen to 2,120,000 acres, bringing up the total for the republic to 8,200,000 acres. In fact Santa Fe has little more than one fourth of the tillage area that Dr. Zapata supposes. When we consider that the Province in question has only 240,000 population, it is surprising that they have even 2,100,000 acres under tillage. It shews an average of 48 acres to each able bodied man, which is really prodigious. Dr Zapata's figures would give 150 acres of tillage to each man, which is a wild absurdity.

As we have already said the wheat-crop of the Republic, at £6 per ton on the ground is worth 84 millions currency, but we shall have to grow 3,000,000 tons before it will represent (as His Excellency erroneously supposes) a sum of 300 millions currency.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

THE ANARCHISTS.

April 29th.

You will long since have discussed the Anarchists' revenge—the blowing up of the Véry restaurant in the Boulevard Magenta. You will have settled in your minds the degree of pusillanimity of which the Paris jury is supposed to have been guilty in virtually acquitting Ravachol of capital crime. You will know that four hundred of the anarchist gentry who have fled from the active proceedings of the Paris police are now our guests in London. You may imagine that Paris and London are in a state of terror. You will have been told so. It is not true. As for London, beyond our flower-shows and pictures, we are most interested in Orme. He has had a tooth drawn and suffers from sore throat. His owner, the Duke of Westminster, intended the son of Ormonde to win both the Guineas' and the Derby. I fear he'll show up in neither event. As for Paris, they have also 'ses affaires', and go about without assuming that the earth will open under their feet because the oppressed and criminal classes have discovered a use for explosives. The new dangers to which we are or may be exposed at the hands of the ruffianly and the desperate will require new remedies. That is all. The dangers are not the less real because they represent old ones in a new guise. But from all I read, the opinion seems confirmed that the so-called anarchists are without organisation. As one of the refugees in London has stated:—"We are not acting at the call of any chief. We follow our own counsel and act as events dictate. The arrested men are, it is true, enthusiastic workers of the propaganda, but it must be remembered that in all revolutionary movements it is the unknown men from the background who come to the front in a crisis. That is precisely the present state of things."

The man who tells us this is an approved anarchist who glories in the work of destruction in avenging his class and laughs at the supposition that the arrest of a few of the propagandists and the emigration of a few others will have any effect upon staying the hands of the thousands who are ready to fill up their places. He thinks that the explosion at the Café Véry was intended to kill not the proprietor, but the waiter l'Herot. As for May Day, once dedicated to flowers and sports, to Christian hymns and before them to heathen religious festivals, and now a yearly terror to the weak and apprehensive, the man believes that in France there will be no outrages, but there may be in Spain and Italy, where the propaganda is more active. This view is confirmed by the opinions of M. de Rochefort, Mademoiselle Louise Michel and others among the aristocracy of social revolt, the ignorant call Anarchists, but whom the refugee quoted despises as "fantaicistes", people who chatter but put not their hands to the good work, and personally use neither torch nor bomb. An interesting and vile lot, all of them. But there they are; and I for one agree with the foreign gentleman who gives us the information just quoted, that the question is far beyond the reach of the police and of fussy Ministers. Society and its agents are in their right to destroy social vermin; but whose vermicide shall we employ? The arch-quack, the ideal rat-catcher, Bismarck, failed conspicuously. He put them for a season out of sight, but in the darkness the creatures multiplied exceedingly. The legislation projected, or talked of, now in Paris in defence of society may at some future period be used against the bourgeoisie themselves. Of this Castelar has just reminded them. There is one good idea spoken of, which is to pay the police better and get better men. Fair haired young women dressed in red and white striped jackets who come to restaurants with bombs in their neat little baskets are difficult to trace. They come from nowhere. The Paris police consider they are acting energetically in arresting one or two hundred men, who happen to be known to them. But of these men, not one, as yet, has been convicted or even fairly accused of crime. The unjust methods resorted to by the agents of the Government, who in default of real evidence against the accused, forge accusations for the sake of keeping their victims in custody, is one of the main causes of the Anarchism of the torch and dynamite; while in the course of ages it has, no doubt, suggested to reflecting minds the doctrine of "l'Anarchie"; one of the most obvious as well as the most subtle of political ideas. It means simply the absorption of the Government in the community, the destruction of that eternal antagonism between the governing and the governed. Nothing need be said of the practicality of the idea in the present condition of society. Otherwise it is obviously the final goal of all political thought. Why Ravachol and his congeners are called 'anarchists' is perhaps because they call themselves by that name. It best represents the fiendish hatred of the rope suggested to criminal minds by a thing shaped like the gallows. The hatred extends to indirect punitive instruments, such as Magistrats, and even to the innocent walls of prisons and courts of justice. When the blow comes, it comes from nowhere. So far beneath the feet of society is the fire. M. Loubet, the bourgeois Prime Minister of the French Republic, says: "In face of such sudden catastrophes the police are powerless. Prefects, ministers and governments can do nothing, for it is all mystery."

A sad confession; and one that scarcely supports M. Loubet's further information that he intends to put a stop to the licence lately existing in speaking and writing. No doubt, Frenchmen and men of kindred races, write and speak under excitement not only what is foolish but what is wicked and justly punishable. In our own country we have now instances of the same kind. Two men, Mowbray and Nicolls by name, and respectively publisher and editor of an anarchist paper called the Commonweal have been just committed for trial for writing and printing wicked and minatory nonsense. But these things are only sparks in the smoke, visible evidence of the fire, not the fire itself. In France, the bonhomme Loubet confesses that the fire is 'all a mystery' and goes on babbling like a Salisbury or some vulgar English politician about 'setting class against class.' "Véry," says M. Loubet, "was standing at his counter. Three workmen were sitting in front of him drinking. The bomb went off under their feet, and yet they saw nothing."

The police, as he says, cannot be expected to be more vigilant than was M. Véry himself. Certainly not. What is to be done? unless it be decreed flat blasphemy for women to wear red and white striped jackets, to have fair hair, or carry double-lidded small baskets; and let us arrest the offenders, as we arrest and prosecute all who write, have written, or are thought capable of writing an anarchist article. M. Loubet, says finally to his interviewer "I can confidently assure the public that there is no cause for anxiety." Bon homme. His predecessors in the days of Louis Napoleon did more than they got credit for or even intended themselves in the way of rooting out the internal fires which smouldered in the filthy dens in the old faubourgs of Paris they demolished. People grumbled at M. Haussman's public expenditure. It was in the end cheaper than an inefficient police; and one is rather inclined to look in that direction for remedying the modern evil we shall have to endure for sometime of the new science of explosives being at the disposal of the desperate who live in socially subterranean regions. There is nothing like the sunlight for putting out fires. It consumes the gases upon which they feed. "Why not send us the facts?" Some will say. I send you several columns of facts; and I can say religiously, few of them were of any value the day they were printed, and none, but the mere facts of the explosions, were of any value the day after. The same temperament that breeds bomb-throwers creates liars and cowards. What is the use of facts unless we look them in the face, and microscopically and scientifically, not trembling with apprehension and through tears and fine cambric.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

The Post-Master General yesterday received a lengthy telegram from one of his subordinates in Mendoza, in regard to the condition of agriculture and cattle-farming to that province. We extract as follows:—

Department of 25 de Mayo—The plantations are all in excellent condition. In spite of the heavy frosts cattle are thriving well.

Department of La Paz—The locusts caused such ravages in this department, that the settlers felt disheartened. At present there are 2,500 acres under alfalfa or Lucerne. The wheat-plantations are insignificant. Cattle, however, are in good condition. The soil on the banks of the Araujo is so fertile that numerous settlers are ploughing up the land with a view to sowing wheat. About 1250 acres are already under wheat. The settlers at Tulmaya are also ploughing, although the water is not so good for irrigation. In this district there are already 750 acres under wheat.

In the Jocoli, Asuncion and San Miguel districts, there are very fair plantations of wheat. Cattle are, moreover, in good condition, particularly in San Miguel, where the pasture is excellent.

Department of Maipu—There are extensive wheat-plantations in this department.

Department of Guaymallen—A few new vineyards have been started. The settlers are at present pruning the vines. Wheat-plantations are scarce. People attach more importance to vine-culture. Last season's wheat-crop was almost entirely eaten up by the locusts.

Department of Chacabuco—The camps in this department are so poor that cattle are dying off rapidly. The distress here is general, as the locusts ate up the crops, and a three months' drought dried up all the grass. The settlers have been ruined. It has not rained since April, which is the second drought since November.

Department of Lujan—The settlers here have about 5,000 acres under wheat. Cattle are in poor condition, as it has not rained for a fortnight and the frosts are very heavy.

Department of Tupungato—Owing to the drought, cattle are in poor condition The settlers are ploughing up land for wheat-plantations.

Department of Tunuyan—There are a thousand acres under wheat here, but the extent will be greater, as the settlers are all busy ploughing. The condition of the cattle is very poor. Since the beginning of June the Cordillera pass is dangerous.

ROSARIO.

ST. PATRICK'S LITERARY SOCIETY

The annual meeting of this flourishing society took place on Sunday evening, the chair being taken by the Rev. President, Father Sheehy. There was a very large attendance of members, and great interest was manifested in the business of the meeting, to elect a new Committee. The Rev. Father Sheehy explained that he could not accept the honour of re-election, owing to his many duties.

The Treasurer's report was very satisfactory notwithstanding heavy disbursements made necessary by the valuable additions made lately to the library, which is one of the most promising features of the institution, and influence for good.

The election ensued, and the following gentlemen now form the Committee: President Mr. Timothy O'Connor; Vice-President, Mr. James M. Carthy; Treasurer, the Rev. Father Sheehy; Secretary, Mr. Eugene J. M. Carthy; Librarian, Mr. Michael Gearty; Committeemen, Messrs. M. Sheehy, J. Hart, Shanahan, Watson Kelly, Sullivan, O'Donnell, Dinneen and Healy.

Results have proved that the lending library has added greatly to the prestige of and to its usefulness among many who are prevented by various circumstances from visiting or spending any time at the rooms of the Society.

We understand the new Committee will enter at once upon its labours and we hope to be able to report many good things of St. Patrick's Literary Society during the present season.—Argentine News.

THE SAN RAFAEL COAL MINES.

We extract as follows from Dr. Zuber's report:—

"D'Arbigny, Forbes, Haitt and others, in their explorations, discovered the existence of this coal formation in Peru, Bolivia and the North of Brazil, but the carboniferous formation has been found in small quantities in Brazil. Burmeister maintained that he found that formation in San Juan and Mendoza, but subsequent researches by Stezner, Geinitz, Zuber and Szajnocha shewed what Burmeister considered to be a carboniferous formation was not so.

In 1889 the question was again brought on the tapis, owing to the discovery of carboniferous fossils, near Retamito in San Juan. The discoverer was Father Meister, who sent them to Dr. Berg, who sent them to my colleague and friend Dr. Szajnocha, professor in the University of Cracow. This savant declared the formation to be carboniferous, and this statement gave rise to fresh hopes of discovering true coal. In the petroliferous region of Mendoza several indications of coal have been found.

The first specimens of real coal in Mendoza, so far as I know, were discovered at San Rafael, department of 25 de Mayo, and were sent to Buenos Ayres by Dr. José A. Salas. They were analysed by Dr. J. J. Kyle and pronounced to be first class coal The trials made proved highly successful. The dimensions of the specimens indicated, moreover, that coal must exist in large quantities in San Rafael. Thanks to Dr. Salas's activity, a company was formed to work the coal-mines. The works, however, were begun badly and much useful labor was wasted. It seemed to me that the work was being carried on to shew that coal did not exist. It was at this time that I turned my attention to the discovery. I therefore went and visited the district. The spot where Dr. Salas discovered coal is in the Cordillera about 70 miles to the west of San Rafael, between the rivers Atuel and Diamante, in 69 degrees 50 minutes west. Long. from Greenwich and 34 degrees 30 minutes south Latitude. The carboniferous formation lies very deep, which explains why it was not discovered long ago. Dr. Salas discovered three mines, which he named respectively General Mitre, General Roca and Eloisa. The layers of coal run from east to west. The direction is fixed, so that there must be an enormous quantity of coal under the layers already discovered. There is a great difference between this formation and other formations in the Cordillera discovered so far. The thickness of the layers varies from a few inches to a yard and a half. This is the surface coal. In the Eloisa mines I found on digging that the layer was several yards in thickness. I may here mention that coal has been discovered at Maralyne and in Neuquen, a circumstance that shews the extent of the formation.

The lack of communication is a great difficulty, but this difficulty may be surmounted, as the country lends itself to the construction of roads and even a portable railway may be built.

BRITISH INTERESTS IN DANGER.

Mr. Editor,

The inhabitants of this town of Necochea have become furiously exasperated at the Southern Railway Company, and threaten vengeance in many unpleasant forms, if the Southern Railway Company persist in making the terminal station in the yet unformed "Cuidad Quequen," instead of making the railway across the river into Necochea, according to the concession they bought from Messrs Olivier and Company.

You may judge for yourself whether or not the inhabitants have a reason for being indignant when you know that this town contains three thousand people, most of whom have landed interests at stake, mostly contracted under the impression that the railway concession would be fully complied with, whereas they now find to their great chagrin, that the Railway Company are attempting to have the terminus made in the "Cuidad Quequen"; a city composed of four houses and six ranchos and not more than one hundred people.

Of course everyone here was in high expectation that the railway would be opened to here for public traffic about the end of this year and in time for next bathing season, and that there would be any number of visitors by train who would take a liking to the beautiful beach and safe bathing resort and in fact cause a general stir and revival of business all round.

Enclosed please find the Baluarte, our local newspaper, in which you will find a copy of the petition sent to be placed before Government requesting that the Railway Company be obliged to continue the line across the river into Necochea.

Let British shareholders look to this in time, otherwise something may take place here that will be very injurious to their interests and create a bad example for others to follow. Should the terminus be built on the Quequen side, remember this warning.

Someday this will become the South American Glasgow.

When the train reaches Necochea you may again begin sending to me your beloved STANDARD, an old snbscriber.

Yours sincerely.
Britisher.

THE RUN OF THE SCOT.

Mr. Editor,

Several letters have lately appeared in your columns about a quick run made by the Union s.s. Scot to the Cape of Good Hope, and by their perusal an impression is created that something unprecedented in the way of fast ocean travelling has been achieved.

In turning over some old papers today I happened to find a memorandum of the log of the White Star s.s. Teutonic from New York to Liverpool during a trip I made in her.

We left the wharf in New York at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, 2nd April, 1890.

We were at moorings in the Mersey at 3 p.m. on the 9th, just one week from port to port.

Taking the distance from Southampton to Montevideo at 6,000 knots, the voyage could be made at this rate of steaming, not allowing for stoppages en route, in a little over 13 days.

When will any of our steamship lines give us a service making as good time?

EDISON GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

185 Tacauri,
June 6th.

Mr. Editor,

In your issue of Sunday last I notice my name in connection with the Edison General Electric Co., New York. I quote in answer a letter received by me from Mr. A. Arango, dated April 22nd:—

"In consequence of this Company (Edison) consolidating with the Thomson Houston Company, as we have already advised you, it is not possible for us at this moment to enter into any agreement for agencies until the general policy of the new Company is ascertained. As soon as we are able to give you definite information we will address ourselves to you.

"Hoping that you may be able to get the orders of the theatres you are bidding on, which you can do without interference of the Sociedad Anonima,

"We are yours very truly,
"A. Arango, Manager."

By inserting the above, you will oblige,

Yours faithfully,
Charles V. Boisot.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Inspector-General has reported on an application filed by the Manager of the Central Argentine, requesting the Government to call for a fresh discussion of the question of the crossing of the Central Argentine rails by the rails of the Pobladora, near San Fernando. The I.G. advises the Home Minister to call a conference of the legal representatives of the two companies to settle the question.

The Inspector-General has advised Government to allow the Pacific Railway to use the rails and other material recently imported by the company, (before the authorities here approved the plans.) Henceforward the plans must be approved before the material is ordered.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week opened yesterday with the Gold Eagle writhing in a bad fit of the falling sickness, and everybody laughing and hooting at the once omnipotent bird. The Minister of the Interior sent a polite circular to the Governors of provinces, telling them that Sunday next, the 12 inst. is the legal day for the Election of the new President, not Friday 10th, as many people supposed.

Mails for Europe by the Thames close to-morrow at 1 p.m.: for the Sorata (to-West Coast) on Thursday at 3 p.m: and for the Nord America, to Europe, on Sunday next at noon.

To-night Ferrari's troupe give Mephistopheles and there will be a full house, as this 'chef d'œuvre' of Boito is much fancied in these latitudes, where most things have been going to Mephistopheles for some time. The Politeama, as usual, is crowded, the Falconi Dramatic Company being now prime favorites with the public. Signora Boetti-Valvassura is said to equal if not surpass the celebrated Duse Cecchi. The San Martin will be crowded to the very portals, as the Beggar Student is announced for to-night. Mdme. Bonazzo in this operette is unrivalled, and Marchetti is 'epatant.' The duet in the second act between Mdme. Bonazzo and the tenor, whose name escapes us at this moment, but whose clear metallic voice is still ringing in our ears, is something to dream of—"tout un poéme" as our French friends say. The Folies-Forlet troupe have been reinforced by a brother of the pen who has thrown up the ink-bottle and taken to recitation. The Doria still astonishes the theatrical world by the nightly performance of the grand operas. The Onrubia, the Zarzuela, the Comedia are crowded as usual. They all have good programmes. The ticket-office in the National Theatre for the Berni's Opera Troupe season is now open. The prices are indeed very moderate, and we note that the Manager has introduced what he calls a subscription "a torno," whereby subscribers pay for half the performances and are entitled to hear all the pieces of the repertoire.

The Deputies met yesterday, but nothing was discussed beyond politics.

The sudden death of Mr. James Haddock, C.E., on Sunday, has caused very sincere regret amongst the older section of English-speaking residents, by whom he was well-known and much respected.

Mr. Monner-Sans is at present issuing copy-books for schools with hand-some engravings on the covers, the description being on the back. They are of the best paper.

We regret to learn that the U. States Minister, M. Pitkin, is about to leave for New York next month. We hope it will be only for a brief visit to his native country.

Everybody in Buenos Ayres knows the efforts of Dr. O'Conor to beautify the grounds of the British Hospital, a matter of some importance to cheer the convalescent patients. We would, therefore, impress on British residents who may have Quintas that the season for planting is at hand. Pines, paradise trees, laurels and all kinds of shrubs, plants and fruit-trees will be gratefully received at the hospital.

Music for the Million! The English Book Exchange of 333 Florida has favoured us with a selection of first-class English music, songs as well as piano music. They have 30,000 pieces of sheet music by the best composers which they offer at 25 cents a piece or a printer's dozen of 13 assorted at $3, all post free. Don't lose the opportunity.

We have received a long letter in reference to the Southern Railway, complaining of want of waggons, delays and what not: but, as the writer has not favoured us with his name we cannot publish his communication. He suggests that the Southern Railway would do a fine stroke of business by buying up the Central Produce Market: he declares that the railway wants the market and the market wants the railway. Our prophetic soul tells us that we are threatened with a correspondence on this subject that will quite eclipse the Ballyhooly and Quilmes Trains literature of a few weeks ago.

Betting on the result of the coming General Election at home has commenced here. Liberals and Tories seem equally confident. The split in the Irish Party adds a lot of pepper to the mess. Whichever side wins the first score of important seats will have the best chance. The Grand Old Man evidently believes in his star and the prophecy that he is to be thrice Prime Minister of England as Dick Whittington was Lord Mayor of London.

The "bola" about poor Paraguay wishing to be annexed to this country has caused an explosion of patriotic indignation in Asuncion, so much so that President Gonzalez and his Cabinet had to go in for a "high falutin" Manifesto, to calm the feelings of the public, which, we are happy to say, appear by latest advices to be all right again, and there is no danger of war. The question is: who started the joke

A smuggler bold was caught at Montevideo the other day. He lined his coat, waistcoat and pantaloons with wax matches made here, and, as he waddled up the mole, presented the appearance of a beer-barrel on stilts. Of course, the tide-waiters pounced on him and his matches like cats on a mouse.

Don't forget that our talented friend, Mr. Pilling, will finish his interesting lecture on General San Martin to-morrow night before the English Literary Society. It will be a treat.

The latest news in the Tramway world is that an employee of the C B A line has settled the "boleto" and Inspector difficulty by inventing a machine that marks the tickets in a different way and with a different colour every square run, so that the Inspector's occupation is like a piece of regal furniture at one of Olmi's auctions—gone. We propose a gold medal and a new hat for the inventor.

Oh! ladies. Don't wear furs if you want to escape influenza. So a doctor told us yesterday. It is really time for the doctors to say something against fur, which is such a monstrously dear item in feminine attire. The crisis of progress gave a tremendous boom to fur in this city. We saw a fur-lined top-coat hanging dolefully yesterday at the door of an old clo concern; it must have cost a fortune when new; and it would be interesting to know what has become of the original owner, who has, evidently, no further use for the aristocratic garment.

The latest Whang the Miller intelligence from the Retiro is that half those so deeply concerned in finding the buried treasure had a narrow escape of going all together to the bottom of an old blind well in one of the underground passages. Had they gone in that direction they would have found truth, if not treasure.

All our colleagues are calling on the Asistencia Publica to invent a cure for influenza. This is rather hard on the A. P., considering that the disease has made fools of the best doctors in enfeebled Europe, and carried some of them off in a jiffey, 'pour encourager les autres.' Influenza must run its course, like the crisis.

A San Juan paper says that there are bodies of Chilian engineers moving about the passes of the Andes making plans etc. etc. They must be hardy fellows and have good snow-shoes, as at this time of year a walk in the Andes is not quite as easy and agreeable as a stroll in Calle Florida or Palermo Park.

The Football match between St. Andrew's 2nd. XI and B.A. & Rosario Rly. 2nd. XI was played on Saturday on the ground of the latter and resulted in a win for the visitors by 2 goals to 1. Morgan kicked off for St. Andrew's and after some fine runs by Godwin and Williams and Morgan and J. Bridge for their respective sides, Brooking scored the first goal for the St. Andrew's; this seemed to rouse the railway who, headed by Williams, made a determined rush to their opponents' goal where some neat passing was witnessed: the final shot kicked by Lloyd was just barely saved by the wind, the goalkeeper missing badly. Shortly after this Morgan scored the 2nd. goal for St. Andrews, the Railway goal keeper being out of place. Again the home team tried all they could to avert defeat, but in this they failed, only succeeding in scoring one goal put through by Mc. Carthy. For the winners J. Bridge, Morgan and Brooking played a good forward game, while J Bridge was by far the best half on the field. Godwin and Williams played well for the losers, as did Foley at full back.

The opening of the German Bazaar on Saturday night surpassed all expectations in brilliancy and success, as proved by the wonderful pecuniary result—$15,000. Half fashionable town was there. President Pellegrini attended and bought liberally from all the fair stall-keepers. The German Minister opened the proceedings with a glowing and eloquent speech in German, followed by Mr. Mantels in pure Castilian; and then all the lovely stall-keepers set about their charitable work with a will, and money flowed into their coffers to the total amount above named, a really splendid result for one night. The fine saloon and tasteful decorations elicited general praise. The Bazaar was re-opened last night and with the same successful result as on Saturday. We warmly congratulate our German friends. Our esteemed colleague the Deutsche Zeitung published a special number with splendid illustrations of the German Hospital and the saloon in which the Bazaar was held.

The proposed enlargement of the Anglican Church of the Holy Trinity in Lomas is necessitated, we understand, by the increasing number of English residents in the neighbourhood, for whom accommodation must be provided. It is proposed to spend $3,500 in addition of a transept to the nave, which will materially improve the general aspect of the building. A concert is to be held in Lomas to-night in aid of the Building Fund, at 8 p.m.

Yesterday Mr. Bartolette, attache of the United States Legation, and Special Commissioner for the Chicago Exhibition, visited at 655 Calle Alsina the Grand Panoramic views of this republic which the Portuguese Consul, Mr. Gudfresel is preparing for the Great Show. Mr. Bertolette was greatly pleased at what he saw, and says the great panorama will be one of the gems of the World's Fair.

The "Señoritas de Conil" will be played in the Comedia Theatre to-morrow night for the first time in Buenos Aires. "Los Aparecidos" on Friday night.

The Matto Grosso men have broken the record of bloodless Brazilian revolutions. The Democracia of Asuncion, May 25 says that on May 7 there was an encounter near Corumbá between the Brazilian Government forces and the revolutionists of Matto Grosso. The loss of life amounted to 1200 or 1500 men. Amongst the revolutionists were killed Captains Norbert and Lucas, and Lieut. Mameer. The Government forces, commanded by Ponci, routed their opponents and took possession of the city, which became the scene of all sorts of violence and excess, in which the families of the revolutionists suffered greatly. Great indignation was felt in Corumba at the defeat. The "patriots" were raising a new battalion, chiefly formed of foreigners.

Hurrah! The Board of Health at Montevideo has rubbed out quarantine on vessels from Brazil, and the Board here, we suppose, will feel bound to do ditto. Seldom has quarantine lasted so far into the season as this year; and it is a relief to get rid of the nuisance even for a few months. As the good Brazilians, however, have done nothing to sanify either Rio or Santos, the first breath of balmy Spring will bring Yellow Jack back on them, and quarantine in the Plate again. Even now, the plague still lingers in Rio, as there were 50 deaths from it in the second fortnight of May.

If any of our readers will kindly lend us a copy of the River Plate Handbook of 1885 we will promise to return it to them unsoiled, and to give them also a present of the new Handbook when it appears, which will probably be in August.

Who wants to buy the Champion Potatoes of the River Plate, grown at Mar del Plata, now recognized as the Potato Garden of the republic? Messrs. Benet and Duran, 870 Calle Cuyo, are the only men in town who sell Mar del Plata potatoes by wholesale and retail, with San Juan, Mendoza and Salta wine to wash them down. We can vouch for the fact that these Mar del Plata potatoes are as mealy as any to be found even in old Ireland, and are worthy of the praise universally accorded them.

We thank Dr. Clausolles for his kind invitation to visit his new Medical Baths at Calle Belgrano, 1038; but, until the Influenza Fiend lets go his grip on our starboard ear, we must postpone the pleasure.

We note in the Capital of Rosario that Mr. German Schenck has been named German Vice-Consul for the departments of Santa-Fé,

The best test of a Sheep Dip
PRACTICAL RESULTS OF USING A RELIABLE DIP WHICH CURES THE SCAB AND IMPROVES THE WOOL.
The following testimonial is received from Messrs Ronald & Rogers, the celebrated Brokers for River Plate wools at Liverpool who sold a number of lots of wool from some of the largest Estancieros in the River Plate.

Telegraphic Address—Ronald, Liverpool, Exchange Chambers, Bixteth Street, Liverpool, 19th Feb. 1892.
Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

ON 'CHANGE.
Monday, June 6th, 1892.
The week opened this morning with a very weak feeling in gold. As the Presidential election approaches, the conviction grows stronger that the conciliation policy of Generals Roca and Mitre will triumph and that Dr. Luis Saenz Peña will be unanimously elected by the Electoral College. All fears of disturbances are removed, and the market looks upon the future with glowing expectations of reform and return of prosperity. Very great importance is attached to the peaceful settlement of the Presidential question, and the number of optimists is growing daily larger; the whole market is now "bearing" gold, and the wonder is that it does not fall headlong to 50$ to the ounce.
Thirteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at 53$, fell to 52.60, and closed at 52.70, say 223¼ % premium. Fifteen hundred sovereigns were sold at 16.44$ to 16.35, closing at 16.38, say 224¼ % premium.
An active speculation took place in Patriotic Bonds this morning, and under the sharp demand prices rushed up again. About half a million were sold, closing at 67.30 for cash and 67¼ for the end of the month. Internal Bonds closed at 61¼. The sudden great demand for Patriotic Bonds is explained by the fact that the subscription lists to the first series of the capital of the Banco de la Nacion Argentina were reopened to-day; over six millions of the stock will be required to fill the ten millions capital of the new Bank.
Shares of the Banco Sud Americano were chalked on the black-board at 28. A few French Bank shares were sold at 454. Shares of La Edificadora fell to 76 and 75; they were formerly at 80. Catalinas opened at 8, but closed heavy at 7.90. Municipal Lottery Bonds put in an appearance at 40.
La Plata Cedulas were dull, but prices closed steady at 30.30. The Bonos of the Bank were in demand all morning at 15$—say 84¼ % discount.
The exchange market showed slight improvement this morning, drawing rates being firmer. Little business was reported. Discounts are easy.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

A 3 leguas de San Antonio de Areco, y en la costa de la Cañada Honda campo sin rival para agricultura o invernada, altisimo, todo de tierra virgen, negra y profunda, con pastos absolutamente tiernos y de toda estacion, trevol, cardo asnal; capaqui en invierno y gramilla de cuaresma en verano. Su forma es cuadrada y esta completamente alambrado.

Llamamos muy especialmente la atencion sobre este precioso lote de tierra situado en la region mas feraz y cultivada de la provincia, donde es muy escasa la oferta, y sobre la rapidez de los engordes y la fecundidad del suelo, que produce cosechas de maiz que llegan algunos años hasta 90 fanegas por cuadra. Esta rodeado de espléndidos establecimientos de notoria fama con los de Gainza, Quirno Costa, Bernardino Acosta, Artayeta Castex etc.

MAMMOTH CLEARANCE SALE AT THE
BANKRUPT STOCK EMPORIUM
78--SUIPACHA--78

We are much pleased to announce to the public that our great Clearance Sale up to date has been a tremendous success. We have sold a much larger quantity of furniture and house furnishings than we anticipated in so short a space of time, yet we find it very difficult to make room for the shipment that is coming to us from La Plata, owing to other fresh arrivals daily, consequently we will continue our Clearance Sale for a few days longer in order if possible to get more space. It is useless to enumerate all of our articles. We simply invite the public to kindly call and investigate for themselves, as we claim that we are in a position to save you very much money in furnishing your houses, and money saved is as good as money earned; it is folly to pay exorbitant prices for ordinary new furniture when you can have it elegant and substantial from us at a much less figure. Everything is newly polished before leaving the premises.

INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 o/o tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

BRONCHITIS.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Dr J Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff) Discovered a Remedy, to denote which he coined the word «Chlorodyne.» Dr Browne is the Sole Inventor, and as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discoverrd by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr Browne's Chloredyne must be false.
This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne—Vice Chancellor Sir W PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. BROWNE was undoubtedly the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to—See »The Times,» July 13, 1864

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this !"
